

eSTATEMENT, COMMUNICATIONS AND DOCUMENTATION DELIVERY SERVICE AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURE

PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY BEFORE REGISTERING FOR THIS SERVICE

This eStatement, Communications and Documentation Delivery (the "Service") is provided by the division of HTLF Bank shown below in the "Contacting Us" section ("we", "our", "us", and "Bank") to Customer ("you" or "your"). Access to and use of the Service is subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations. Unauthorized use of the Service or information accessed via the Service is strictly prohibited. Registering for the Service indicates your desire to replace your mailed (paper) statement(s), including other paper communications, such as tax documents and legal notices (together "Communications") with an electronic version (PDF) that you can view, save to your device or print at your convenience. Your eStatement will consist of what you currently receive in the mail. If you currently receive imaged copies of your checks with your paper statements, the same will be available with your eStatement. If you currently do not receive images of checks with your paper statement, your check images will not be available with your eStatement. In addition, any Communications, or other contractual notice or disclosure may be delivered to you electronically for any account that is set-up to receive eStatements as allowed under law. You can view your last 24 statements (24 months for monthly cycle, 24 weeks for weekly cycle or 24 days for daily cycles.)

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to discontinue the Service. This can be done by requesting this change through a Bank representative. When you request to turn off the Service you will automatically begin receiving mailed (paper) statements and Communications, or other contractual notices or disclosures with your next statement cycle. We reserve the right to continue sending email notices of amendments to any electronic Agreement at the email address you have provided. The Bank will not impose any fees for the cancellation of the Service. There may be other costs such as account ineligibility or interest rate changes to your account if you cancel the Service. Please review your account terms that you received when you opened your account. For an additional copy of those terms please contact your local branch. If at any time, in addition to the electronic eStatement, if you need a paper copy you may notify the Bank by sending an e-mail, calling or writing us at the division of HTLF Bank shown below in the "Contacting Us" section, or by contacting a Customer Service Representative at any of the Bank's locations. Applicable fees may apply. By accepting this eStatement and Communications Delivery Agreement and Disclosure for the Service, I acknowledge that ALL accounts available through online Banking will be enrolled. This means the printing of statements, Communications, and other contractual notices or disclosures for all those accounts will be turned off going forward. In addition to the current accounts available through Online Banking, any NEW accounts opened or added in online Banking will AUTOMATICALLY BE ENROLLED for the Service. Only one email address will receive notification of eStatement availability per customer.
